Furlough—Privilege Leave.

Read the following paper :—

No. 132. From Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Simla, 14th November 1881, No. 886-S.A.

Furlough—Privilege Leave.

With reference to Military Department communication, No. 239-A, dated the 24th January 1881, extending to the year 1881 the special indulgence of 90 instead of 60 days' privilege leave to officers who on account of the war were debarred from obtaining it sooner, I am directed to say, for the information of the Commander-in-Chief, that the Government of India sanction the grant under His Excellency's orders of 90 days' privilege leave in 1882 to any officer who has not yet availed himself of it, and who, His Excellency is satisfied, was prevented by good and sufficient reason from taking it in 1881.

2. Any officer to whom the leave might be granted in 1882 would not be entitled to the ordinary 60 days' privilege leave in addition.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

31st August 1881, No. 4697.

Furlough—Privilege Leave.

Read the following paper:—

No. 532. From Colonel G. CHESNEY, Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Adjutant-General in India; dated Simla, the 10th August 1881, No. 541-S.A.

Furlough—Privilege Leave.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 3204-A (Leave—General), dated the 5th August 1881, enquiring how far the grant of the special ninety days' privilege leave will affect the grant of ordinary privilege leave this year, in the case of those officers whose special leave was granted towards the end of 1880, but terminated in 1881.

2. In reply I am to say, for the information of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, that what the Government of India objected to was, that an officer should get three months' special leave plus two months' ordinary privilege leave in 1881, or five months altogether; but that if an officer's special three months' privilege leave was granted and commenced in 1880, there is no objection to his getting his ordinary privilege leave in 1881 also.
