Simla, 20th July 1881.

Sir,

I am directed to state that, having reconsidered the question in the further light thrown on it, in your letter A. 1649 W, dated the 4th July 1881, the Government of India still adheres to the opinion expressed in this Office letter A. 193 B. of the 13th June 1881, and is not prepared to assign an Imperial grant of Rs. 6925/- towards the construction of an upper storey to the stamp

July 1881, the Government of India still adheres to the opinion
previously expressed,
and is not prepared
to assign an Imperial grant towards the construction of an upper story to the Stamp Office at Madras.

2. I am to observe that it should probably have been mentioned to the Govt.
of India that owing to there being no
additional space
for the extension of the

the Stationery office,
which was prevented
by the Post and Telegraph office
building, the Govt.
were compelled to
sanction the upper storey to the Stationery office. the excess
charge due to which
the Madras Govt.
now seek to recover
from Imperial funds.
