No. 77.

READ—the following letter from JULAND DANVEES, Esq., Secretary, Public Works Department, India Office, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated London, 28th March 1882, No. 440 P.W. :—

Referring to your letter of the 10th ultimo, No. 379 W., I transmit herewith a copy of a memorandum by the Director-General of Stores of this Office, dated 24th idem, from which you will perceive that the fourteen shillings paid to Mr. Boteler for his railway journey from Poplar to Southampton is not to be recovered from his pay.

ENCLOSURE.

Copy Memorandum by the Director-General of Stores, dated 24th March 1882.

With reference to the annexed Madras Public Works letter No. 379 W., dated 10th February last, I have to report that the sum of fourteen shillings paid to Mr. Boteler was for his travelling expenses (2nd-class) from Poplar to Southampton.

Under his agreement, he was to be provided with a free 2nd-class passage to Madras, and it was necessary for him to proceed by railway to Southampton, in order to embark on board the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company's steamer Morapora. The amount in question should therefore not be recovered from Mr. Boteler.

The stipulation referred to in Colonel Thompson's letter refers only to hotel and similar expenses, and not to the railway fare to the port of embarkation, which is invariably paid by Government as part of the passage to be provided under the agreement.
