TO

Colonel R. H. Sankey, C. B. R.E.
Secretary to Government, Mr. Secy.
Buildings & Roads
MADRAS, 4 April 1882.

Sir,

I have the honour to address you on the subject of Funds for the Madras Harbour Works. It appears to me inadvisable to submit a Budget Estimate for the whole year, except under your direction, until the Government has announced its proposals with regard to the reconstruction of the Works. I have now at my credit about Rs 36,000 which will last for one month, say until 15th May 1882. When that is expended there will be no other sum available unless by a special grant. I am spending now Rs 30,000 to Rs 40,000 per month.

I have the honour to be,
Sir

Your most obedient servant
Walter H. Beardmore
Ag Superintendent
