GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following letter from Dr. J. BURGESS, LL.D., Archaeological Surveyor, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 22nd April 1882, No. 42 :—

As the Railway works between Bellary and Gadag are being pushed forward, I have the honor to call the attention of Government to the circumstance in connection with the antiquarian remains in the vicinity of the line. Wherever Railways have been constructed in India, I believe the antiquarian remains have suffered, and in very many instances most severely. Ancient, but deserted temples and palaces have been carted away bodily and broken into "ballast" for the line; inscription slabs have been built into bridges or culverts, and the like.

2. I have therefore to request that instructions may be issued to prevent the destruction or carrying off the materials of the ancient remains at Hampi, or from any other places in the district, Bellary being particularly rich in such remains.

ORDER—dated 29th April 1882, No. 248, Public.

Forwarded to the Collector of Bellary for prompt attention.
