Circular official Memorandum

It having been brought to the notice of Government that the time of the Government Press is unnecessarily occupied in printing the superscriptions on official covers, the undersigned is directed to state that henceforth such work will not be done at the Press and that each office should provide itself with a stamping die or dies for stamping by hand the necessary particulars. The work of cover-making and stamping, when such instruments have been procured, may be performed by the peons or other inferior servants attached to the office.
The cost of such dies will be trifling and may be charged to Contingencies.
