SIR,

Enclosures

Sir,
I regret to have to report that Sevaram Dhallay, aged 25, a moulder employed in this Workshop, died on the 29th instant, from injuries received to the fingers of his right hand on the 6th instant while engaged in lifting some iron plate Castings in the Foundry.
He was sent to the Monegar Hospital immediately after the accident but his parents removed him on the 26th instant and he died at their house.

I have the honor to be

Yours Most Affectionately
