No. 638.

CURRENT NO. 2887

From

George Hammett Esq.
Inspector General of Registration

Madras,

To

The Honorable R. Davidson C.S.I.
Chief Secretary to Government, Ootacamund.

Dated Madras, 28th September 1881.

Kind Sir,

In the order of Government Judicial No. 2932 dated the 20th December 1880, it was intimated that instructions would be issued in the Public Works Department for the preparation of plan and estimate for an office for the Registrar of Nellore. These have not yet been prepared and are not required now.

2. The Registrar's office was originally located in two rooms attached to the Court-House at Nellore, but the rooms leaked so much during the last monsoon rains that the office had to be removed into a portion of the Collector's Cutcherry.

3. The two rooms have been since repaired, and have again, with the permission of the District Judge, been occupied by the Registrar's office.

4. The Registrar reports that a new office will not be needed, if the room adjoining the two rooms (14 x 18 each) be utilized as a record room, and a separate room be built for the pleaders who now use the adjoining room.

Plan A.

Plan B.

5. The District Judge accepts the proposal.

6. The Consulting Architect has seen the plan (A) of the proposed record room, and has arranged the dimensions of the windows as per sketch attached.

7. The estimate for utilizing the additional room amounts to Rs. 300; and that for building a new room for pleaders to Rs. 800. Together to Rs. 1100, or Rs. 100 above the limit under which all works are executed departmentally.

8. The Registrar wishes to have the works done departmentally, but I prefer that the Technical department of Public Works should do it, and have the honor to request that you will be pleased to obtain the early sanction of the Government to the plans and estimates, and for the works being put in hand and completed without delay.
