[illegible] Delivered a Copy of

This Indenture, made the 18th day of March 1882 between the Asiatic Steam Navigation Company, Limited, being a Joint Stock Company with limited liability, registered under the provisions of the English Companies Acts of the one part, and The Secretary of State for India in Council of the other part. Witnesseth that the said Asiatic Steam Navigation Company, Limited (hereinafter called "the said Company,") do for themselves and their successors covenant and agree with the said Secretary of State for India in Council, his successors and assigns, in manner following, that is to say :—

Provision of good and efficient Steamers.

1. The said Company shall and will at all times during the continuance of this contract, or so long as the whole or any part of the service hereby agreed to be performed ought to be performed in pursuance thereof, provide, maintain and keep seaworthy and in complete repair and readiness for the purpose of conveying all the mails of Her Majesty's Government, troops, passengers, convicts, goods, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, and specie as hereinafter provided, a sufficient number of good and efficient screw steam vessels, for the line of communication hereinafter mentioned, and that such vessels shall respectively be of not less than seven hundred tons gross register tonnage each, and shall respectively be provided and supplied [illegible] of not less than one hundred and twenty h[illegible] Wednesday. power in each vessel.

Proper equipment of vessels.

2. All the vessels to be employed under this contract shall be fitted up with magazines capable of holding gunpowder or other combustibles to the extent of fifteen tons for vessels under one thousand tons gross register tonnage, and twenty tons for vessels of one thousand tons (gross register tonnage) or upwards, and shall always be supplied and furnished with all necessary and proper machinery, engines, apparel, furniture, fittings, stores, tackle, boats, fuel, oil, tallow, provisions, anchors, cables, fire pumps, and other proper means for extinguishing fire, charts, chronometers, proper nautical instruments, and whatsoever else may be requisite and necessary for equipping the said vessels, and rendering them constantly efficient for the service hereby contracted to be performed, and also manned and provided with competent officers with appropriate certificates granted pursuant to the Act or Acts in force at the date of this contract or for the time being in force relative to the granting of certificates to officers in the merchant service, and with a sufficient number of efficient engineers, and a sufficient crew of able seamen and other men to be in all respects as to vessels, engines, equipments, engineers, officers and crew subject, in the first instance, and from time to time, and at all times afterwards, to the approval of the Government of India on behalf of the said Secretary of State in Council.

Replacement of disabled vessels.

3. The said Company shall at all times during the continuance of this contract have in constant readiness for the due execution of the service hereby contracted to be performed, vessels equal in tonnage and efficiency to those hereinbefore stipulated to be provided, and shall in every case of any of the said vessels becoming disabled, immediately at their own cost and charge, replace the same by another good and efficient vessel of equal tonnage and power.

Line of communication.

4. The said Company shall and will establish and maintain a line of communication by such steam vessels as aforesaid between the several ports and places hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a line of communication from Calcutta to Port Blair, and thence to Camorta, and back viâ Port Blair, Rangoon, Port Blair and Calcutta, or at the option of the said Secretary of State when he shall so order or direct instead of going to Camorta and Rangoon, the said vessels shall go from Port Blair to Madras and back to Port Blair, and such communication and service shall be performed once in every four weeks, and shall leave Calcutta on the dates for that purpose mentioned in the Time Table hereto annexed, the first of such voyages to commence on the 12th day of May 1882.

Times of departure and arrival specified in schedule B.

5. The times of departure and arrival of the said steam vessels on their several voyages in the said line of communication from and to Calcutta, and the several other ports and places aforesaid, and the times within which the runs in the said voyage shall be made from place to place, and the periods of time they shall be detained and stay at the said ports and places, shall be those which are particularly defined and specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and marked with the letter B.

Government may alter time of departure, &c.

6. If, nevertheless, at any time or times during the continuance of this contract, the said Government of India shall deem it requisite to alter the particular days or hours of departure from and arrival at all and every or any of the ports or places, to or from which the said vessels are to run, or the said mails are to be conveyed under or by virtue of this contract, the said Government shall be at liberty at any time or times, and from time to time so to do on giving one calendar month's notice of such intention to the said Company, and the particular days, times, and hours of departure from and arrival at all and every or any of such ports or places which may be appointed by any such alteration in force for the time being shall be deemed to be the days, times and hours of departure and arrival of the said steam vessels and mails under this contract, and shall be observed and kept by the said Company accordingly. Provided that the said Company shall not be required by any such alteration to run more than one steamer on the said line of communication in any four weeks.

Delay of 24 hours may be ordered or permitted.

7. Should it be deemed by the Government of India, or the Post Master General of Bengal, or the Deputy Post Master General of British Burmah, or the officer of Government for the time being in charge of Port Blair or the Andamans, or in their absence respectively, by the persons exercising their functions, or by the chief Civil Officer at any of the said ports or places respectively, requisite for the public service, that any vessel employed under this contract should delay her departure from Calcutta or from any of the ports or places aforesaid as the case may be beyond the periods herein agreed upon, and mentioned in the said Schedule (or if the said Company shall so request,) the said Government, or Post Master General, or Deputy Post Master General, British Burmah, or the said Chief Civil Officer shall have power and be at liberty to order or permit such delay (not, however, exceeding twenty-four hours) by letter addressed to the Master of any such vessel, or person acting as such, and which shall be deemed a sufficient authority for such detention.

Government may require steamer to call at Table Island.

8. The said Company and the Masters of any of the vessels employed or to be employed under this contract shall, during the course of any voyage from Calcutta to Port Blair and Camorta and vice versa under this contract, when required by the said Government of India so to do, call at the Table Island in the Cocos for the purpose of landing any officer or officers of the said Government for the purpose of inspecting the light-house there erected, or otherwise for the service of the said Government, and of bringing away any such officer or officers, and also of landing there any stores which may be desired to be landed there by the Government of India, but for the carriage of which stores a fair and proportionate charge may be made.

Steamers shall carry Government mails, stores, passengers, convicts, &c.

9. During the continuance of this contract the said steam vessels shall on every voyage duly and safely carry all mails of the Government (including all despatches, bags of letters, packets, and Post Office stores) which by the Government of India or the Post Master General, or Deputy Post Master General, British Burmah, or the persons exercising their functions respectively, or the Chief Civil Officer or Post Master of any of the ports or places herein mentioned, shall be required to be conveyed on such voyage between any of the ports and places aforesaid, and shall also in like manner carry and convey all such passengers, troops, convicts, goods, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender and specie from any port to any other port as may be required in that behalf by any of the said authorities to be carried and conveyed on behalf of Government from, to, and between any of the said ports and places in manner, and on the terms expressed in these presents.

10. The said Company shall and will, when and so often as they or,

Conveyance of Government passengers, goods, &c.

as respects places other than Calcutta, when and so often as they or any of the Masters of their respective vessels shall, by notice in writing, be required so to do by the Government of India, or by any of their Civil or Military or Naval servants or Agents acting under their authority, receive, provide for, victual and convey on board such vessel or vessels to and from and between any of the places to which such vessel is about to proceed, and at the several rates of passage money specified in the schedule hereunder written and marked A. according to the several classes of passengers therein provided for, such persons as shall be certified as proceeding on the public service, and shall and will in like manner on the requisition in writing of the Post Master or of the Chief Civil Authority at any port or place, receive, provide for, and victual, and convey any postal officer proceeding on duty, free of all charge, and shall also in like manner convey such public stores, goods, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender, and specie as they may be required by the said authorities, or any of them, charging for freight in respect thereof at the rate specified in that behalf in the said last mentioned schedule, and such passengers in the public service, and such public stores, goods, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender, and specie shall be so conveyed at all times in preference to private passengers or ordinary freight. Provided always that in case of troops, passengers, convicts, goods, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender, and specie required to be carried for the said Secretary of State in Council by the said Company from Calcutta under this contract, notices of such [illegible] shall be given to the Company's Agents for the time being at Calcutta one week at least before the time appointed for the sailing of the vessel, by which such passengers, goods, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender, and specie shall be so required to be carried in order that the said Company may know what space can be placed at the disposal of the public.

Sheep and cattle to have proper protection.

11. Whenever the said Company shall carry sheep or cattle in their vessels on behalf of the said Government of India as hereinbefore provided, such sheep and cattle shall, when not carried between decks of any of the said vessels, be well and sufficiently protected from the sun and weather by tarpaulin awnings to be provided for that purpose by the said Company to the satisfaction of the said Government of India. Provided always that whenever in the opinion of the said Government of India or of the Commissariat or Marine Authorities at Calcutta, such sheep and cattle shall be carried between decks, and notice thereof shall have been given to the said Company or their Agents for the time being, or to the Commander for the time being of the vessel upon which such sheep and cattle are, or are about to be carried, then, and in such case, the said Company will carry such sheep and cattle between decks, and will take all necessary precautions for their safety and accommodation without being paid any additional charge or remuneration beyond what is set down in the Schedule &c.

Penalty for carrying letters other than Government Mails.

12. The said Company shall not, nor shall any of the Masters of any of the vessels employed or to be employed under this contract, receive or permit to be received on board any of the vessels employed under this contract, any letters for conveyance other than those required to be conveyed under, or by virtue of clause nine of this contract, and such letters as are provided for in the Indian Post Office Act of 1866, Section V, and in case of any and every breach of this clause the said Company shall forfeit and pay to the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors and assigns the sum of Ten Rupees for every letter so improperly received on board any such vessel.

Troops, passengers, cattle, &c, to be shipped and landed by Government, Mails by Company.

13. The said mails, troops, passengers, convicts, stores, and other things hereby contracted to be carried by the said Company shall be duly, safely, and with all possible despatch delivered and received at each of the ports or places to which the said vessels are to proceed in the performance of this contract, the said Secretary of State providing boats for the troops, passengers, convicts, stores, and other things, but not for the mails for which the said Company shall provide boats, and the said mails shall in every case be conveyed to and from shore in a suitable and seaworthy boat of not less than four oars to be furnished with effectual covering for mail bags, and properly provided, manned and equipped by the said Company.

Penalty for failure to provide an efficient vessel ready to put to sea.

14. If the said Company shall at any time fail to provide an efficient vessel in accordance with the terms of this contract, ready to put to sea from any one of the ports or places hereinbefore mentioned on and at the duly appointed day, hour or time, then and in each case, and as often as the same shall happen, the said Company shall forfeit and pay to the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors and assigns as and by way of liquidated damages, the sum of Rupees (250) Two hundred and fifty for each and every successive twenty-four hours up to the seventh day inclusive, which shall elapse from and after the duly appointed hour, until such vessel shall actually proceed to sea on her voyage in the due performance of this contract, and in calculating such delay, any fraction of a day shall reckon as a complete period of twenty-four hours.

Penalty for failing to arrive in due time.

15. In case any vessel employed or to be employed in the performance of this contract shall not arrive at the several ports or places at the times at which having regard to the stipulated duration of the passages, the same vessel ought to so arrive then, and in each and every such case, and as often as the same shall happen, the said Company shall pay unto the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors and assigns as and by way of liquidated damages the sum of Rupees (25) Twenty-five for every hour or fraction of an hour during which the said vessel shall fail to arrive at the next port of destination, but nevertheless so that the said Company shall not in any case be liable to any penalties under this clause if the delay shall have arisen in consequence of the said Government of India having required the vessel making such default to call at the Table Island under clause eight of this agreement, nor if the default be proved to the satisfaction of the Government of India (which shall be notified in writing to the said Company by one of the Secretaries to the Government of India, or by the Director-General of the Post Office) to have arisen from circumstances over which the said Company and their servants had not and could not have had any control.

Penalty for failure to remain the stipulated time at ports.

16. In case any such vessel shall fail to remain at any of the ports or places hereinbefore specified for the spaces of time in the said Schedule B. provided (unless the earlier departure of such vessel shall be authorised in writing by the Government of India or the Director-General of the Post Office, or the Post Master General, or Deputy Postmaster General aforesaid, or Chief Civil Officer, at the said port or place) the said Company shall forfeit and pay to the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors or assigns, as and by way of liquidated damages, the sum of Rs. 100 for every hour and fraction of an hour, which such vessel shall so fail to remain less than the specified time.

Power of Government to survey, &c., vessels. Penalty for continued employment of condemned vessels.

17. The Government of India shall also have full power whenever, wherever, and as often as such Government may deem it requisite to survey and inspect by any of their officers or servants all and every the vessels employed, and to be employed in the performance of this contract, and the hulls thereof, and the engines, machinery, furniture, tackle, apparel, stores, equipments, officers, engineers, and crew thereof, the said vessels to be opened in their hulls whenever the said Officers or servants of Government authorized to survey as aforesaid may require, and if any such vessel, or any part thereof, or any engine, machinery, furniture, tackle, apparel, boat, store, or equipment thereof shall on any such survey be declared by any of such Officers or Agents unseaworthy or not adapted to the service hereby contracted to be performed, such vessel shall be deemed inefficient for the service hereby contracted to be performed, and shall not be employed again in the conveyance of the said mails, troops, passengers, convicts, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, and other things until such defect or deficiency shall have been repaired or supplied to the satisfaction of the said Government of India, and if such vessel shall be employed for the carriage of the mails, troops, passengers, convicts, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, and things or any of them before such defect or deficiency shall have been repaired or supplied to the satisfaction of the said Government, the said Company shall forfeit and pay to the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors or assigns, the sum of Rs. 2,000.

Company to attend to directions of Government.

18. The said Company and all Commanding and other Officers of the vessels to be employed in the performance of this contract, and all agents, seamen and servants of the said Company shall at all times during the continuance of this contract punctually attend to the orders and directions of the said Government of India, or (as respects the said places other than Calcutta) of the Governor, or Deputy Post Master General or other Chief Officer, and of the Post Master (or the person exercising his functions) of the said port or place as to the landing, delivering, and receiving of the said mails, troops, passengers, convicts, sheep, cattle, live stock, and other things carried on behalf of Government.

Notices and directions, how to be delivered.

19. All notices and directions which the said Secretary of State in Council or the Secretaries to the Government of India, or the Director-General of the Post Office, or Deputy Post Master General as aforesaid, or the officers or other persons of the said Government of India are by these presents authorised and empowered to give to the said Company, their officers, servants, or agents may as respects places other than Calcutta at the option of the said authorities be either delivered to the Master of any of the said vessels or other officer or agent of the said Company, in the charge or management of any vessel employed in the performance of this contract, or may be left for the said Company at their last known office or place of business in India, and that as respects Calcutta, all such notices shall be so left for the said Company at their last known office or place of business in Calcutta.

Minimum charge Rs. 60,000 for six trips.

20. AND THIS INDENTURE further witnesseth that in consideration of the premises, and of the due and faithful performance by the said Company of the services hereby contracted to be performed by them, the said Secretary of State in Council for himself, his successors and assigns doth hereby covenant and agree with the said Company, their successors and assigns in manner following, that is to say, that there shall be paid to the said Company, their successors and assigns so long as they perform the said services in the manner and with such vessels as herein provided monthly on the fifteenth day of each month, and after production of proper bills, vouchers and receipts for the same, the amount of the passage money and freight of all such passangers, native doctors, and warrant officers, troops, convicts, goods, stores, sheep, cattle, live stock, specie, and other things as shall since the last payment to and settlement with the said Company have been carried and conveyed by the said Company on behalf of Government by virtue of or under the provisions of this contract, at and after the rates specified respectively in the said Schedule marked A hereunder written, and that when passage money and freight payable to the said Company in respect of every six voyages performed under this contract from Calcutta to Port Blair, Camorta and back viâ Rangoon calculated according to the rates specified in the said Schedule shall be less than the sum of Rupees (60,000) Sixty thousand, there shall be paid to the said Company, their successors and assigns, so much money as with the gross amount of the passage money and freight so to have been paid will make up the full sum of Rs. (60,000) Sixty thousand as passage money and freight for every such six voyages. It being the intention of the parties and of this contract that the said Company shall be entitled to receive a minimum sum of Rupees (60,000) Sixty thousand as freight and passage money for such six voyages performed under this contract from Calcutta to Port Blair, Camorta and back viâ Rangoon. In calculating the said freight payable to the said Company, their successors and assigns, provender carried in excess of the wants or requirements of the live stock conveyed by any steamer shall be reckoned and paid for as cargo carried to the port where it may be discharged.

Exemption from Port dues, Government Officers to render reasonable aid.

21. So long as the said Company perform the said service in the manner, and with such vessels as herein provided, such vessels of the said Company shall be exempted from port dues, usually levied by or under the authority of the Government of India, upon ships touching at those places, and further, that all officers of the said Government of India, who may, from time to time during the continuance of this contract, be stationed at any or either of the said ports or places other than Calcutta, Rangoon and Madras, shall, at all times upon the request of the said Company and of all Commanding Officers of the vessels to be employed in the performance of this contract, render such assistance as may be reasonably required of them, and particularly in facilitating the discharge of cargo from, and the taking of cargo on board the said vessels.

Government to send all passengers, convicts, &c., by this line.

22. So long as the said Company perform the said services in the manner, and with such vessels as herein provided, the said Government of India will send or forward all such passengers, convicts, packets, goods, stores, cattle, sheep, provender and specie, as they may have occasion to send or forward from Calcutta to Port Blair and Camorta, and from Port Blair and Camorta to Calcutta, and between Port Blair and Camorta, and Port Blair and Rangoon by such of the said Company's vessels, as may from time to time be running under this agreement, but the Government of India shall nevertheless be at liberty to use its own vessels for the carriage of any such passengers, convicts, packets, goods, stores, cattle, sheep, provender and specie, upon any very exceptional and emergent occasion, anything to the contrary hereinbefore contained notwithstanding, it being the intention of Government, that the said Company shall have a monopoly of carriage of Government stores, so far only as other carriers are concerned.

Power to Government to use other ships in cases of emergency.

23. Provided, and it is hereby declared that in case of emergency, such as war or insurrection, famine, or other calamity necessitating speedy or exceptional intelligence or assistance, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State in Council to send and despatch, from time to time, and to all or any of the said ports or places, any mails, passengers, troops, convicts, stores, goods, sheep, cattle, live stock, provender and specie by vessels of, or belonging to, or chartered by, the said Secretary of State in Council, but that in all such cases the said Government shall, when convenient and practicable, give the said Company the opportunity of tendering for such employment before other vessels are engaged, but nevertheless so that the said Government shall in no wise be bound to accept such tender.

Contract to continue for two years and thereafter for six months, and so on, for another six months unless notice is given.

24. And it is hereby agreed and declared that this contract shall continue in force for the period of two years, commencing on the 12th day of May 1882, and thenceforth shall, unless determined by notice in writing to be given by either party to the other, continue in force for a further period of six months, and so on, afterwards unless and until 6 calendar months' notice in writing shall be given by either party to the other of an intention to terminate the same.

Contract not to be assigned.

25. And it is hereby further agreed and declared that without the consent of the said Secretary of State in Council, signified in writing under the hand of one of the Secretaries for the time being to the Government of India, this contract shall not, nor shall any part thereof be assigned, underlet or disposed of, and that in case of the same or any part thereof being assigned, underlet or otherwise disposed of without such consent signified as aforesaid, or in case of any breach of this contract on the part of the said Company, their Officers, Agents, or servants in any respect, and whether there shall or shall not be any penalty or sum of money hereby made payable by the said Company for any such breach, and notwithstanding the pendency of any proceedings for the recovery of any damages or penalty for any such breach, or in case of the said Company being wound up under any of the provisions of any Act or statute relating to the winding up of Joint-Stock Companies it shall be lawful for the Secretary of State in Council, (if he shall think fit, and notwithstanding there may not have been any former breach of this contract) by writing under the hand of one of the Secretaries for the time being to the Government of India to determine this contract without any previous notice to the said Company or their Agents, and the said Company shall not be entitled to any compensation in consequence of such determination, but notwithstanding this contract may have been so determined, the said Company shall continue liable for any liability which they may have incurred previous to any such determination.

Government may take up the Company's steamers for conveyance of troops, &c.

26. If at any time during the continuance of this contract and so often as the Government of India, or the Government of Madras, or the Government of Bombay shall require any of the steam vessels of the said Company, employed or to be employed under this contract, for the conveyance of troops for towing vessels or for other purposes, and shall cause notice of such requirement to be given to the said Company by writing under the hand of any of the said Secretaries to the said Governments, then the said Company shall and will permit the said vessels or any of them to be taken up, used and employed for the conveyance of troops for towing vessels or for any other purposes exclusively by the said Governments for any period of time during this contract on the terms following, that is to say, that all the coal which shall be consumed shall be supplied by the said Governments, and the said Secretary of State in Council shall, moreover, pay to the said Company by way of hire for the use of each vessel so employed by the said Governments at the rate of Rs. 12 (twelve) per ton according to the gross register tonnage of the said vessel for every month or portion of a month during which the same shall be so employed.

Rate of hire and general conditions.

Provided that a vessel taken up under this section shall be regarded as under hire until it shall have returned to the port of original departure, the time so reckoned from the date of discharge from actual service to the date of return to the port of original departure not exceeding in any case the time required to perform the return voyage at the speed of seven and a half miles per hour, and shall be entitled to hire for at least one month, and shall be free of all charges for port dues, use of moorings, Harbour Masters' services, light dues, and pilotage, and shall not be required to tow more than one vessel at a time unless to prevent disaster, shipwreck, or to escape the fire of an enemy, and shall not be required to carry more troops or passengers than the Passenger Act or Government certificate provides for excepting in cases of unusual emergency. When vessels are taken up for the conveyance of troops under this section, the said Company must arrange, if required so to do, for the messing of passengers and troops on such scales and at such rates of charges as may from time to time be agreed upon between the Government and the Company.

No deduction from the subsidy for non-performance of services owing to Government hiring the steamers.

Further, it is provided that no penalties shall be incurred by the Company under clause fourteen of this agreement should the Company be compelled temporarily to discontinue part or the whole of the said service owing to Government taking up the Company's steamers under the terms of this clause, but the Company are to be paid for any portion of the service they continue to perform according to Schedule A, and all the conditions and penalties of this agreement shall attach in respect of such part of the said service as the said Company continue to perform.

Penalty on breach of contract by Company.

27. And, lastly, the said Company do hereby bind themselves and their successors unto the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors and assigns in the sum of Rupees (50,000) Fifty thousand (and which is secured by a bond of even date herewith) as and by way of liquidated damages to be paid to the said Secretary of State in Council, his successors or assigns, by the said Company upon and in case of the determination of this contract by notice as aforesaid, in consequence of a breach of contract or the winding up of the said Company as aforesaid, against whose estate the sum of Rupees (50,000) Fifty thousand shall and may be proved as a debt, provided also, and it is hereby agreed and declared, that this agreement is made under the orders of the Government of India, and it is intended to be in the nature of a bond for the performance of public duties in which the public are interested. In witness whereof the said parties to these presents have hereunto set their respective hands and seals the day and year first above written.
