Read the following paper:—

No. 185. From Colonel T. ROSS CHURCH, Commandant, Madras Volunteer Guards, to Colonel E. L. HANKIN, Acting Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Fort St. George, 4th July 1882, No. 154.

I have the honor to request you will solicit the sanction of Government for the place-of-arms, Sergeants' quarters, and store rooms at Vepery, about to be vacated by the 39th Regiment, Native Infantry, being placed at my disposal for the use of the volunteers of the regiment under my command. On a previous occasion I applied for quarters (see G.O., 15th July 1879, No. 3804) for the Sergeant Instructors of the Madras Volunteer Guards, but my request could not be granted, as His Excellency the Commander-in Chief objected to adding to the number of permanent residents in Fort St. George.

2. It is very necessary that the Sergeant Instructors should reside close to the store rooms and place-of-arms, and as permanent quarters cannot be found for them in the fort, and I am unable to procure them any in the vicinity, I am induced to apply for the buildings alluded to, and Vepery would then become the head-quarters of the regiment.

3. At present two out of three Sergeant Instructors of the regiment occupy quarters in the fort, but they only do so by permission of the General Commanding the district, and are liable to be ordered out at any time should the rooms they occupy be required.

4. By G.O.G.G., No. 930, dated 1st September 1876, these Sergeant Instructors are entitled to public quarters, class A, or compensation in lieu, and in para. 148 of the Indian Volunteer Regulations it is laid down that "It is of great importance that they should be quartered in the same building as the armoury or rendezvous of the corps, or as near as possible;" but, as permanent quarters in the fort cannot be provided, it would, I think, be to the advantage of Government and of the regiment if the head-quarters were removed to Vepery, and the before-mentioned buildings handed over to me.

5. Should the barracks, &c., at Vepery be placed at my disposal, the two sets of quarters and store room in the fort used by the Volunteer Guards would then be vacated, but the Volunteer Artillery would still require their place-of-arms and quarters for one Sergeant Instructor.

6. A guard would be necessary to protect the arms, and would probably be given by the General Commanding the District should the troops in garrison admit of it.

No. 186.

ORDER THEREON, 11th July 1882, No. 3514.

Sanctioned, as requested by the Officer Commanding Madras Volunteer Guards, to whom the buildings will be made over* by the Public Works Department.

* Vide Proceedings of Government, Military,
No. 3189, dated 29th June 1882.

2. With reference to para. 6, a military guard cannot be provided. Regimental arrangements will have to be made for the care of the arms, &c., belonging to the corps.
