Quarters—Warrant and Non-Commissioned Officers.

Read the following paper :—

No. 538. From Lieutenant-Colonel J. EWING, Officiating Quartermaster-General, to Colonel E. L. HANKIN, Acting Secretary to Government, Military Department; dated Ootacamund, 22nd June 1882, No. 494.

The Officer Commanding Mysore Division submitted, for the Commander-in-Chief's approval, an estimate for Rs. 500 for constructing two rooms for servants at the Commissariat Staff Sergeants' quarters at Bangalore, but there being no direct order for the provision of such quarters in this Presidency, a reference was made to Bengal to ascertain what the system there is. In reply* the Quartermaster-General in India states that one servant's house, with stable for one horse, is provided for the quarters of all Non-Commissioned Officers in departmental employ under the authority of the addition to para. 177, Bengal Barrack Regulations, made by G.O., No. 75, of 1881.

* Vide copy of letter, No. 1777-B, dated 30th May 1882, enclosed.

2. His Excellency therefore directs me to state that he is of opinion that all departmental Non-Commissioned Officers in this Presidency are equally with those in Bengal entitled to quarters † for servants, &c., and recommends that sanction be accorded to their being also provided with them.

3. The work, estimate for which was submitted by the Officer Commanding Mysore Division, was approved by the Commander-in-Chief, and is included in the budget list printed in O.G., No. 5064, dated 21st September 1881.

From Lieutenant-Colonel G. B. SANFORD, Officiating Quartermaster-General in India, to the Quartermaster-General, Madras Army, Ootacamund; dated Simla, 30th May 1882, No. 1777-B.

In reply to your No. 2995, dated 22nd April 1882, I have the honor to state that one servant's house, with stable for one horse, is provided for the quarters of Non-Commissioned Officers in departmental employ in the Bengal Presidency under the authority of the addition to para. 177, Bengal Barrack Regulations, made by G.O., No. 75, of 1881.

No. 539. ORDER THEREON, 29th June 1882, No. 3181.

On the recommendation of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council sanctions the extension to this Presidency of the following clause of Bengal G.O., No. 75, dated 6th June 1881 :—

“One servant's house with stable is authorized for the quarters of each Non-Commissioned Officer in departmental employ.”
