2. At present civil debtors are placed in one of the wards of the Criminal Jail, an arrangement which is not only undesirable but the ward now occupied by civil debtors is required for criminal prisoners.

3. The building to be converted into a civil debtors' ward stands in a separate enclosure and is entirely cut off from the Criminal Jail. The building has only been used for some years for a lumber room, and for a moderate outlay can be utilised as now suggested.

4. Funds are available for this work from the Convict Labor Fund.

No. 146-A.

From the same Officer, dated Ootacamund, 16th August 1882, No. 211.

In continuation of my letter No. 202, dated 9th August 1882, forwarding, for the sanction of Government, plans and estimates amounting to Rs. 3,845 for providing accommodation for civil debtors in the District Jail at Calicut, I have the honor to submit for sanction a further estimate, amounting to Rs. 255, for constructing a bathing cistern in the enclosure, and to request that this amount may be added to the original estimate.

2. The Superintendent of the Jail has been informed that he ought to have seen that the estimates for the proposed alterations and additions were complete before submitting them for sanction.
