Nos. 176-177.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, dated 28th August 1882, No. 2209 W :—

The Committee appointed in G.O., No. 2358 W., dated 26th September 1881 having now submitted the draft of an Act to provide for Irrigation and Navigation in the Madras Presidency, the draft will in the first instance be forwarded to the Board of Revenue for their remarks.

2. The present draft has been framed in accordance with the Bombay Act, which was based on that in force in the North-West Provinces.

3. The attention of the Board is particularly drawn to

(1) Part V, Sections 36 to 40—and their opinion is desired as to whether the adjudications should be made by the District Judge instead of the Collector as provided for.

(2) Part VIII.—The Board are requested to state whether they consider this part necessary, or whether Act I of 1858 makes all requisite provision.

4. The draft should be returned with remark as early as possible.
