C. to W.

I believe Major Drake-Brockman is going shortly to Bangalore & perhaps a little longer. He was named for a Committee on the navigation rules and will probably be away before the Committee have met, which will not be till near the end of Sept. Mr. Ottmann who will be in charge of the Buckingham canal can take Major Brockman's place on the Committee but it will be necessary that he should be named for the duty. Please draft the necessary order & send to W.
