GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

GENERAL.

To,

The Secretary to the Government of Madras
Public Works Department.

Fort William, ¹⁷ January, 1882

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 3135 W of the 17th December 1881, suggesting that Public Works Code Chapter V para 144 requiring securities from Storekeepers be modified to meet the cases of Government pensioners appointed to such posts, I am directed to state that the addition of any such rule as that proposed by the Government of Madras appears to the Government of India unnecessary - Cases of the nature referred to must rarely occur and the Code rule in question ^{is} sufficiently elastic to admit of their being dealt with with

with exceptionality. -

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most Obedt^t Servant,

W. H. A. S.
