To. The Collector of Madras

Sir,
The work of purchasing properties destroyed, and threaten ed to be destroyed by the Sea, has become very onerous. I have inspected the locality twice, and feel that delay causes loss to Government, portions of the buildings being carried away into the Sea. I beg therefore to request that you will be so good as to permit me to entertain at once the two houses referred to in my letter of the 30 August 1882, N^o 599 in anticipation of sanction.

I have the
