Sir,

Enclosures.

I have the honor to state in reply to your Office note No. 1224 I dated the 23rd October 1882 that I have selected for my leave the particular period when my executive duties are at their minimum and that all instructions and working drawings will be given in full before I take my departure.

In the Office there are many arrears of work for my draughtsmen.

There will but remain the signature of papers and cheques and if you will be kind enough to undertake this for me on my responsibility, my temporary absence will be felt in our way.

I have the honor to be your most obedt. servt.
