READ—the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel H. R. MEAD, R.E., Superintending Engineer, Sixth Circle, to the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, dated Trichinopoly, 17th October 1882, No. 533 T.N. :—

I have the honor to forward herewith for sanction estimates noted in the margin for the construction of four huts and one

Police station-house at Vachakaraputty.	rs. 1,300	third-class terraced station-house at
Police huts at Vachakaraputty	... 1,188	Vachakaraputty in the Tinnevely District.

2. The estimate for the station-house was prepared in accordance with the standard plan No. 3 sanctioned in G.O., No. 435 W., dated 26th February 1880, with certain modifications as detailed in the report, and that for the huts was prepared on the standard plan No. 2, approved of in G.O., No. 93 W., dated 14th January 1880.

3. The site for the above buildings has been secured free of cost, as will be seen from the reports attached to the estimates, and consequently no provision is made in the estimates on this account.

4. The Inspector-General of Police, who has countersigned the estimates in token of approval, wishes to secure provision for these works in the budget for next year, and I therefore request that the necessary allotments may be made early in April next.
