the Examiners properly objected;
he therefore reverted to the minimum pay Rs 20. He now requests in his petition that he may as a special case be allowed to draw the maximum pay Rs 30 of his clerkship, or be allowed to revert to his appointment as Delta superintendent.

24. The Sup^r Engineer considers that he sees no grounds for either of these requests and considers that as he has failed in his duty as a Delta superintendent he is a lucky man to have obtained another appointment on Rs 20.

Forwarded in original as requested by the petitioner.

The facts of the case are as follows.

H. Himar Pillay was temporarily employed until May 1874 when he was appointed an Overseer's writer on Rs 15 a month. In May 1879 he was appointed probationary Belk Superintendent on Rs 30 and was confirmed in that appointment in December 1879.

2. In May 1882 he was removed from this appointment the Executive Engineer reporting that although he was a young man capable of learning his duties he had not done so and was not therefore fit for the appointment.

3. The Sup^d Engineer appointed him to be a clerk on Rs 20-30 IV class 3^d grade and ordered that he should draw the maximum pay Rs 30 of the appointment to this
