SIR,

Enclosures.

I have the honour to request that I may be allowed one month and fifteen days (or so much as the rules allow) privilege leave, from the 1st (December or date of departure). This date will depend upon the completion of the inspection of the Turnoo Canal which I am about to commence in company with the Chief Engineer for Irrigation.

2. The Senior Executive Engineer in the Circle can, it is thought, assume charge of this office during my absence.

3. It is not my intention to take any other leave within three months of my return to duty.

I have the honour to be

Yours most obed^t servant.
