In reply to your endorsement, No. 2663 W. of 13th October 1882, on the subject of leave and leave allowances admissible to Apprentice Supervisors and Overseers, I am directed to state that these subordinates do not come under the category of Engineer Apprentices (Section 126 (b) Civil Leave Code) and are not therefore entitled to any leave under the Civil Rules. Should they however be obliged to take leave they practically revert to the Military Department when absent from duty and have no claim to the allowance sanctioned for them while attached as Apprentices to the Public Works Department, but they should be allowed their full military pay and allowances while so absent.
