UNDER date the 1st Decr/82
Read the following:-

No 1379 D of 27th Nov/82.
To
The Genl Supt P.W.D.

In view of the approaching abolition of the workshops, is it necessary to fill up the appt.
in question? Explanation on this point is required.

Recd 24.11.82

24.11.82

Two clerks have been transferred permanently to other divisions & one for one month.

Three clerks on the contingent establishment will shortly be dismissed, Mr Reger being one of them.

He has had several years experience in despatching orders & whilst the workshop is abolished it is advisable to retain him.

Mr Reger
20/11/82

P.S. It will be observed that unless Mr Reger obtains a permanent appointment soon, there will be difficulty in finding him employment in other divisions on account of his age -

The appointment of Mr W. Reger as a clerk on the permanent establishment of the P.W.

Workshops is sanctioned.

His claim to pension will be regulated by the established rule.

Why is the appointment of another Clerk necessary When the D.P.W. & the are so soon to be abolished

24.11.82

To L. W.

It is not an extra Clerk, but one to fill a ^{*}vacancy.
Still the appointment is I think
open to question.
