FOR ORDERS.

For the last 20 years
the S.W. Secretariat have had the use of a detachment of lascars (8 recently) who, though borne on the Military returns, and occasionally called out for special duty such as opening and closing the Cooim Bar, &c, have virtually formed a part of this office establishment.
They have now been suddenly recalled under instructions from the Commander-in-Chief, and the Secretary, after careful enquiry into the requirements of the office, has been compelled to supply their places by new men in anticipation of formal sanction which is now solicited.

2. The cost during the remaining portion of the current year can be met from the grant for Temporary Establishment. For next year no special provision will be necessary as the revised scale of Establishment sanctioned by the Govt of India, and already budgetted for, includes 500 lascars for the whole Department.

Of these, 10 per cent are allowed for contingencies.
The cost of the Secretariat lascars can be met from this provision.
