Camp Lower Anicut of February 1882.

From

Colonel J. Beatty R.E.,

Superintending Engineer, 6th Circle,

To

Colonel R. H. Sankar C.B., R.E.,

Chief Engineer, P.W.D.,

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that Supervisor M. C. Taylor's Camp was moved from Kovilputti to Sator in the Tirunelveli Division on the 29th November 1881 and he travelled by rail on the same day to join Strivilliputtur, his new station. Hence full daily allowance was claimed for the 29th November in addition to Railway fare. But the Examiner of P.W. Accounts has deferred the audit of the daily allowance pending sanction of Government to the grant of this allowance in addition to Railway fare, vide para 599 of the P.W. Code. Under the circumstances I request that the necessary sanction may be granted.

I have &c,

J. Beatty - Colonel R.E.,
Superintending Engineer, 6th Circle
