Endorsement No 654 S. 84
dated 11th March 1882.

Forwarded to the Secretary to Government Public Works Depart. ment for favor of disposal with the following remarks.

2. Conductor Nicholson was granted furlough for two years from the 29th August 1877 which was extended by the Secretary of State for a further period of two months.
He returned to duty on the 31st October 1881 or two days after his leave had expired for which period no allowances were admi-ted by this office.

3. Under rule 9 of Chapter XVI of the Civil Leave code an officer on serving leave can under special circumstances be exempted by Government from loss of appointment but not from loss of allowances during the period of absence without leave, but as Conductor Nicholson was directed by the Secretary of State to embark by a particular steamer his case may be dealt with with with reference to rule 5 section 524 Civil Leave code and he be allowed to draw furlough pay for the two days, the period being treated as extension of furlough which was admissible to him.
