I have the honor to enclose extracts from my notes* of inspection of the Sub-Registry

ENCLOSURES.

Extracts from Notes of Inspection of Sub-Registry Offices at Peddapuram and Rajahmundry.

"Peddapuram.—The office is held in a room attached to the Taluk Cutcherry built on the new design. There are two almirahs in the room which is inadequate for the purpose for which it is used. An additional room is required to accommodate the Sub-Registrar, his clerks, and parties coming with documents for registration. When this additional room is provided, the present one can be utilized as a Record-room.

"Rajahmundry.—The room in which the office is held is attached to the Taluk Cutcherry. It measures about 9 feet by 18 feet. There are two almirahs, a table, a desk, a bench and two chairs in it. Parties have to stand outside. This is by no means a proper arrangement. An additional room is indispensably necessary, when the present room may be utilised as a Record-room."
