PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following letter from

Dr. J. S. Burges, Archaeological Surveyor
dated Madras 30 March /82 R^o 40.

As the working season of the Archaeological Survey closes a month hence and the books, instruments, & tents we will have to be stored safely during the monsoon, I have the honor to request that Gov^t will make the necessary arrangements and let me know by about the 16th proximo when I expect to be in Madras and after which I may probably not require the tents &c.

Order thereon 14 April /82 R^o 385 Continue

Dr. Burges will be informed that the tents & instruments may be handed over to the Public Works Stores
