No. 44. From Colonel T. E. TENNANT, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Cocanada, 30th January 1882, No. 19.

I HAVE the honor to forward, for the sanction of Government, the accompanying plans and estimates amounting to Rs. 2,480, for constructing drains in the Central Jail at Trichinopoly.

Order No. 513, dated 10th March 1881, but as the plans and estimates have been mislaid the Superintending Engineer, after communicating with me, prepared the present revised estimates, which provide for what is required. I beg that early sanction may be accorded.
