READ—the following paper:—

From Lieutenant-General W. PAYN, c.b., Commanding Bangalore Division, to the Quartermaster-General, dated Bangalore, 5th December 1882, No. 558:—

The dead-house attached to the old Garrison Hospital, now the Military Normal School (No. 26 on the triennial return), is in a very dilapidated and unsafe condition.

2. The Executive Engineer, having been consulted with reference to it, reports that there is no objection to its being pulled down.

3. As there is no further use for it and its present condition is dangerous, I have the honor to recommend, for the sanction of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, its removal under arrangements by the Public Works Department.

No. 9935.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded for sanction of Government.

2. The old Garrison Hospital, having been condemned, has been abandoned as a hospital, and a dead-house is therefore no longer required there.
