GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 29th March 1883, Mis. No. 2638:—

Read—the following letter from H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Collector of Tanjore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Mayavaram, 14th March 1883, No. 1641:—

With reference to G.O.,* No. 181, dated 8th February 1883, R.D., and the Board's Proceedings on which it was
* Communicated in Board's Proceedings, passed, I have the honor to state that Mis. No. 1265, dated 14th February 1883. it seems to me that the Board and Government are under some misapprehension regarding the Head Assistant Collector's office at Negapatam. I think I am not mistaken in stating that no one serving as member or in the Secretariat of the Board (at the time these papers issued) has seen the building for many years, and those who may have seen it probably recollect it in its unimproved state.

2. I enclose a plan of it, drawn to scale. It consists of two separate buildings, 68 feet apart, in one of which is a court for the Head Assistant $13' - 10\frac{1}{2}" \times 24'$; and in the other two large rooms, one $46\frac{1}{2}' \times 15'$ and the other $26\frac{1}{2}' \times 15'$, besides record and store-rooms. Both buildings are surrounded with verandahs and are substantial and in good order. The large eastern room in the clerks' building was constructed, I believe, only two or three years ago.

+ 4 Revenue.
1 Sea Custom.
1 Emigration.
2 Local Fund.

3. I submit that the accommodation shown in the plan, though insufficient for the Sub-Collector with his Sheristadar and thirteen Clerks, is quite enough for the Head Assistant Collector and eight hands† as asserted by me.

ENCLOSURE.—Plan of the Head Assistant Collector's office, Negapatam.

Resolution—dated 29th March 1883, Mis. No. 2638.

Submitted to Government with reference to paragraph 4 of G.O., dated 8th February 1883, No. 181.

2. As the Collector is so decidedly of opinion that the Cutcherry building at Negapatam provides sufficient accommodation for the Head Assistant Collector and his office, the Board consider that no further steps need be taken in regard to its extension.
