During my inspection of the Kumpi Temple restoration work yesterday, under the direction of Mr. F. Black, Assistant Engineer, I was asked by that Officer for certain tools and plant much needed by him, such as: Derricks, Differential Pullies &c. He apparently does not know, which of the three Departments, he is serving under, should sanction his Indents, nor do I know myself whether the P.M.D. should procure such for him.

2. The administration being under the Sirdar Department the accounts compiled by the Civil Department here and the organization of the same to a certain extent having been entrusted to this Department, it is difficult both for Mr. Black and ourselves to know who can give authority for any expenditure, under any head. I beg therefore that definite orders may be issued on this subject for our general guidance.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most obedt servant.
