DOWLAISHWERAM, 31st March 1893

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that one of the Delta Superintendent in the Eastern Division of the Godavari named A. Kamachendriah having carried out certain orders of his superior officers which rendered him unpopular with certain villagers brought a false charge against him of "asking for an illegal gratification in respect of an official act".

2. That the charge was a false one is abundantly proved by the judgment of the Acting Joint Magistrate copy of which is sent herewith.

3. The expenses which the Delta Superintendent had to incur in defending himself amounted to Rs 90 as shown in the margin & as he was caused this expense merely by performing his duties & as it would have a
