To,

The Chief Engineer

P. W. D. Madras.

Sir,

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 1240 W dated 25th ultimo I have the honor to recommend that, in the event of a Project Division being temporarily in abeyance, the permanent Clerks and Draughtsmen (Surveyors being temporary) of such Divisions should be placed at the disposal of the Superintending Engineer concerned for employment at his discretion either in his own office, or in any Division Offices in the Circle, where he considers extra assistance is most needed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

Your most Obedt. Servant.
