OFFICE NOTE No. 53

To

W.

With reference to G.O.No. 983 W. dated 31st. March 1883 according sanction to the remuneration of Rs. 180 to Mr. H.E. Clerk Asstt. Engineer 1st. Grade for passing the 3rd. Class Test or "Departmental Standard", please see para 3 of G.O.No. 456 W. dated 10th. February 1883.

2. Under the above ruling an Officer who passes the Departmental Standard within one year of joining the P.W. Department in India will be entitled to the usual remuneration. But Mr. Clerk who joined his first appointment on 17th. November 1880 did not pass the Test till 16th. January 1882, or over a year from date of joining. The remuneration sanctioned by Government does not therefore appear ^{to be} admissible. Moreover as Mr. Clerk passed the Test at a time when no remuneration was

Would not Mr. Clerk be entitled to the remuneration for passing within two years, just as Mr. Wilson was entitled to it. So far as the papers show I see no difference between the two cases. Order No. 456 W. of 10th Feb, 83, would not have retrospective effect so far as to bar those who passed prior to that date within 2 years of their joining - as in Mr. Wilson's case.

To W.

Mr. Wilson was not entitled to the remuneration for passing the 3rd. Class Test, now called the Departmental Standard, under the rules in force when he passed. Please see my Office Note No. 682 dated 16th. November 1882. In G.O. No. 456 W. dated 10th. February 1883, Government sanctioned the reward to Mr. Wilson, and in para 3 of that order Government decided that the reward was to be granted to any Officer who passes the Departmental Standard within one year of joining the Department in India.

2. Mr. Wilson joined the P.W. Department on the 15th. November 1880, and passed the 3rd. Class Test held on the 17th. July 1882, when he had been over one year in the Department.

3. Neither Mr. Wilson nor Mr. Clerk appear entitled to the rewards sanctioned by Government either under the rules in force at the time they passed, or with reference to the revised rules contained in G.O. No. 456 W. dated 10th. February 1883.

4. The further orders of Government on these two cases are therefore solicited.

D.W.

Messrs Wilson & Clerk passed the Exam. described as the 3rd Class Test in Sec. H page XVII, Clause V of Appendix B. to the P.W. Code. No reward was allowed for passing that Test, but under Clause VII of the same Section, a munshi allowance of Rs 240 was granted to officers drawing Rs 200 & less on passing it within one year of their app't.

Messrs Wilson & Clerk were both in receipt of more than Rs 200 per annum, therefore neither of them was entitled to any thing for passing the test.

Mr. Wilson however represented that under Code para 101, an officer who passed the Lower Standard in any Vernacular within 2 years of joining the Dept was allowed a reward of Rs 180, while for the Departmental Standard or 3rd Class Test (a higher Exam.) only one year was allowed & no reward was granted.

He felt therefore that the rules on the subject were inconsistent, granted to Mr. Wilson for passing the 3rd Class Test, the reward of Rs 180

180 usually allowed for the Lower Standard, & they ordered a revision of Code rules as per
GO. No. 456 W of 10 Feb 1880.

Mr. Clerk's case being exactly similar to Mr. Wilson's, the reward of $1,000 was granted to him also in Sp. L. 983 W 9
31st March 1883,

It is submitted therefore that the Draft order now put up meets the objections raised by the Bar P. W. Acker
