

Report on Mr. Smith Assistant Engineer, Erode Sub Division. vide para 153-157 of the Code.

Mr. Smith joined the Division on the 1st December 1881 and on the 23rd May/82 took charge of the Erode Sub Division; he has therefore been in charge for 9 months, during this time he has made himself thoroughly acquainted with his Sub Division, and has worked it most satisfactorily.

I consider Mr. Smith a thoroughly efficient officer with reference to all the points noted viz. physical energy, practi-cal efficiency and capacity to manage his subordinates and work people.

Sir

I have the honor to en-forward herewith an applica-tion for examination under paras 91 to 94 from Mr. Hayes Assistant Engineer. During the time he has been under my orders he has done his work satisfactrusted to him. He is as active and energetic as his health permits of, this latter however in the hot weather, somewhat interferes in his way. In a cooler climate such as ^{that of} the Nilgherries, I consider he would be in every way a competent and useful officer.

C
The Examinations consisted of six questions on accounts, and 3 on each of the other subjects, viz.

Materials

Foundations

Buildings

Drainage

It was decided to give 50 marks for the questions in Accounts and 100 for the questions on other subjects, or a total of 150; Also that if the Candidate obtained more than 65 per cent, he should be considered to have passed.

The questions & answers have been recorded, also the number of marks assigned to each answer.

Mr. Hayes obtained 136 marks and Mr. Smith 134; or about 90 per cent of the full number.

The Committee are therefore

opinion that these gentlemen have passed the examination and are fit for promotion.
