GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the Superintending Engineer, Fourth Circle, dated 21st December 1882.

Certificate and report from R. G. MACDONALD, Esq., Acting Examiner of Public Works Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Madras, 29th March 1883, No. 782-A.R.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades, in the Public Works Department, has been duly proved for five years, ten months, and ten days, and that a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs. (200) two hundred, equal to five months' emoluments at Rs. 40 per mensem, is admissible under Sections 100 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code.

2. The calculations have been duly verified. The compensation gratuity, if sanctioned, is chargeable to General (now Provincial) Revenues.

3. With reference to the letter of the Government of India, Department of Finance, to Government of Bombay, No. 106, dated 10th January 1881, printed at foot of page 46 of the Civil Pension Code, it appears doubtful whether any retiring allowance should be granted to the applicant at present.

4. With reference to Section 130, Rule 4, attention is solicited to Section 65 of the Civil Pension Code.

ORDER—dated 23rd May 1883, No. 442, Pension.

Under Sections 100 and 109 (a) of the Civil Pension Code (5th Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tenampett Narayanasawmi Pillai, late Draftsman, Coimbatore Divisional Office, a compensation gratuity of Rupees (200) two hundred, equal to five months' pay, payable at Coimbatore, in consideration of his qualifying superior service of five years, ten months, and ten days.

2. The applicant who was discharged on reduction in 1879, was taken on by the Local Fund Board at a reduced salary, and is therefore clearly entitled to the gratuity sanctioned under paragraph 4, G.O., 16th February 1881, Nos. 193 and 194 (Pension). The difference between this case and that cited by the Examiner is that in the latter the applicant for pension was taken on in Government service.
