Please see attached slip from W. The order regarding Privilege Leave should be stopped.

As regards the Notification already published, it will, I think, have to be cancelled entirely. Col: Meade will be regarded by C as on duty. And the signing of papers by Major Fraser will not require notification in the Gazette. The case would fall perhaps under Chap VII, para 36, Note 1. following exception (9) Leg: All. Code - page 277. But perhaps D.W. may like to consult C.
