READ—the following letter from Surgeon-Major H. D. COOK, M.A., Superintendent, Lunatic Asylum, Calicut, to the Secretary, Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, dated Calicut, 8th July 1883, No. 63:—

In forwarding the enclosed remarks of the Official Visitors, I have the honor to state that the planking was not extended, as I received no order from the Surgeon-General on the remarks made by the Official Visitors on their last inspection (May 22nd, 1883).

2. The Executive Engineer will be asked to take up the work at once in anticipation of the sanction of the Surgeon-General.

ENCLOSURE.

Extract from the Official Visitors' Book.

Seen the criminal lunatics; one waiting discharge. Warrants in order. Inspected Asylum; floors require fresh asphalt at an early date. I concur with the District Magistrate's remarks as to the gallows provided for the lunatics in the wards, and think the planking should be at once extended and joined to the beam. Everything was in good order.
