READ—the following paper:—

G.O., dated 31st July 1883, Mis. No. 2002, Judicial.

Read—the following letter from Colonel T. B. E. TENNANT, Inspector-General of Jails, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 18th July 1883, No. 179:—

I have the honor to bring to the notice of Government that a house for the Jailor at Berhampore is much required.

2. At present the Jailor resides in the warder's guard-room on one side of the entrance to the jail. Jailor Clony has a wife and family, and the accommodation, beside being unsuitable, is not sufficient for a Jailor with a wife and children.

3. I therefore request that instructions may be issued in the Department of Public Works for the preparation of the necessary plans and estimates. At Palamcottah it was found necessary to alter slightly the "standard plan for Jailor's quarters," and I would suggest that the residence for the Jailor at Berhampore be built on the same plan as the Jailor's house at Palamcottah.

Order—dated 31st July 1883, Mis. No. 2002, Judicial.

Approved and transferred to the Public Works Department.
