OFFICE NOTE

To

C

Your No: 195 of 12: Instant.

What is the difficulty?

It has been decided that the total sanctioned strength
of the Office Establishment of a Circle is the total of the permanent establishment plus
the authorized temporary Establishment for temporary
Divisions and sub Divisions.
The permanent appointments
having been filled up, all others would count against the temporary scales. The men could be employed
either in permanent or temporary Divisions at the discretion
of

of the Suptg Engrs. Each permanent man would, under
this arrangement have a lien on some duly sanctioned
permanent appointment -
How could it possibly happen,
if the scales thus laid down
be adhered to, that "two
officers should be simultaneously counting service in
one office"?

Has any such case arisen?
or have you reason to sup-
pose it is likely to arise?

D

N^o 1048 D/21. 3.83 D.W.

To W. Enc. 1

The difficulty is this. The sanctioned strength of ^{the} permanent Office Establishment of 1st. Circle to which the Godavari Central Division is at present attached
is as noted in the enclosed statement. All the appointments shewn
in the statement having already been filled up, there are no vacancies in the permanent Establishment upon which the men attached to the central

late sub division of the Godavari
Eastern Division can retain lien.

 The measures adopted by the Superintending Engineer may be accepted. It must however, be distinctly understood that no individual can count as service for pension any period during which he has not actually held a lien on some appointment permanent. It has also to be remembered that the men who have no lien, on their former permanent positions may lose service during their temporary employment, even if hereafter they are again brought on to permanent strength.

Referring to G.O., No. 137 W., dated 13th ultimo, I beg leave to point out that it does not appear feasible to treat as permanent a sub-division of a division sanctioned as temporary by the Government of India.

2. I would suggest that the permanent hands in question be declared to be detached on temporary duty under Section 71 of the Civil Pension Code, and that the Superintending Engineer be instructed to provide for them upon vacancies occurring on the permanent staff in any office in his circle. If this be impossible, there seems no other course open than to discharge them under the rules. They cannot continue to count service for pension in the temporary division without retaining a lien on some permanent appointment.

No. 98.

ORDER—dated 14th February 1883, No. 491 W., Public Works.

The clerks in question will be regarded as detached for temporary duty with a lien on some permanent appointment in the circle. Should no vacancies at present exist, this lien will fall on the office of the Superintending Engineer. The clerks must, however, be absorbed immediately on the occurrence of vacancies. The sanctioned strength of the office establishments of the circle is the total of the permanent establishment plus the authorized temporary establishment for temporary divisions and sub-divisions.

The Central Delta has hitherto been a sub-division of the Eastern Division, and, as such, its establishment has been permanent. As the Delta has now been made a temporary division with two sub-divisions, I have the honor to inquire whether, under these circumstances, the establishment of one of the sub-divisions remains on the permanent staff, or how is it to be treated.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. C. LARMINIE, Esq., Executive Engineer, in charge First Circle, to the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Ellore Canal, 25th September 1882, No. 1462 G.D.

I have the honor to inform you that I have appointed an office establishment for the new Central Division. Of course it would not do to appoint new untried young hands to the higher clerks' posts, so consequently it has been necessary to fill these appointments by promotions from this office and from the Eastern, Western and Ganjam Division offices. To fill the vacancies so formed other promotions have been made, and young men have been appointed to fill the junior posts only.

The Central Delta Division is to be a temporary one, so the position of the permanent clerks transferred from other offices has to be definitely settled. While employed in the Central Delta they will rise in scale in the usual course, but should the Central Delta Establishment be at any time done away with will they, as I think they should, revert to the regular establishment in the grade they may have attained to in the Central Delta at whatever time it may be discontinued?

Again, should any of these transferred men become eligible for pension whilst employed in the Central Delta, the fact of being so employed on a temporary establishment must not be allowed to count in any way against their claims for pension. Both the above points should now be definitely settled, otherwise it will not be possible to obtain competent men to remain in the new appointments. The newly appointed men will be given to understand that their appointments are only temporary and carry no claim to pension.

No. 144-A.

No. 789 S.E., 1st.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, for favor of early orders of Government.

2. The cases of the clerks transferred from other divisional offices to the Godavari Central Division may, it is thought, be brought under the provisions of Section 71 of the Civil Pension Code; the men newly appointed either in that division or in other offices in the places of clerks transferred, being considered temporary.

3. The salaries of appointments to which the men in the new division are appointed or transferred will be fixed, and they will not be entitled to annual increments of pay. Should the division be abolished there appears no objection to these clerks reverting to their substantive appointments on salaries they would have drawn in their respective grades had they continued in their appointments.
