READ—the following letter from J. W. RUNDALL, Esq., Superintending Engineer, Second Circle, to the Chief Engineer for Irrigation, dated Gúdur, 28th July 1883, No. 327 S.G.:—

With my No. 998 S.G. of the 28th December last, I submitted certain proposals for carrying out the required field-work and revising the estimates for the distributaries of the Sangam Project.

2. These were discussed with you at Sangam, and Mr. Berlie's employment on the special duty of these surveys has formed the subject of subsequent correspondence.

3. The Executive Engineer, Sangam, reports that Mr. Berlie assumed charge of the survey duties from the forenoon of the 3rd July, and applies to have his charge constituted a special sub-division.

4. This was recommended in paragraph 4 of my letter above quoted.

5. I beg again to recommend that this survey charge be constituted a special sub-division, on the ground that it is equally important with the executive charge of a sub-division, which would carry with it special allowances to an Upper Subordinate.

6. The Executive Engineer also applies for sanction to a messenger to be attached to the sub-division. To this also I request sanction.

No. 58 E.W.

Forwarded to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, with a recommendation that the proposals of the Superintending Engineer be sanctioned.

OOTACAMUND,
