CONTENTS
PUBLIC WORKS

1. The Public Works Administration was established by Executive Order No. 11631, dated July 1, 1933, under the authority of the Emergency Relief Act of 1932, as amended. It is a part of the Federal Government, and its operations are subject to the supervision and control of the President of the United States.

2. The Public Works Administration is organized into three main divisions: the Construction Division, the Administration Division, and the Finance Division. The Construction Division is responsible for the planning, design, and construction of public works projects. The Administration Division is responsible for the management and supervision of the construction projects. The Finance Division is responsible for the raising and disbursement of funds for the construction of public works.

3. The Public Works Administration has been authorized to borrow money from the United States Treasury and to issue bonds to finance its operations. It has also been authorized to accept gifts of money and property from private individuals and organizations.

4. The Public Works Administration has been authorized to employ a large number of workers, including both Federal employees and contract workers. It has also been authorized to provide training and education for workers in the construction industry.

5. The Public Works Administration has been authorized to acquire and dispose of real and personal property. It has also been authorized to enter into contracts with private individuals and organizations for the construction and maintenance of public works.
