GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Order—dated 1st September 1883, No. 1922, Financial.

The Government note that during the course of each official year, numerous applications are received proposing increases to establishment, or other changes involving increased expenditure, without reference to the sanctioned Budget Estimate of the year. In such cases, it appears to be thought sufficient to say that the proposed expenditure is desirable, or that it can be met from savings. Proposals of the kind can, as a rule, be justified by neither of these considerations. It is intended that each Head of a Department, when submitting his budget for the year, should be careful to see that it is a proper representation of his programme for the coming year. There may, of course, be exceptional cases, but supplemental demands indicate want of care in framing the budget, and, unless urgency is established, it will hereafter be necessary to reject them.
