Circular 11 of 1882.

Resolution No. 385A.G., dated 1st December 1882.

Public Works Department Code, Chapter XV, section V, paragraph 177.

RESOLUTION.—In supersession of previous orders, the Government of India is pleased to rule that the provision for leave and pension allowances, which is required to be shown in the Estimates and Administrative Accounts of Railways and Irrigation and Navigation Works for which Capital and Revenue Accounts are kept, shall be calculated at 14 per cent. of the gross establishment charges, inclusive of contingent charges and travelling allowances.

2. This ruling will have effect in all accounts of the past year now unclosed and will be observed in the preparation of all Estimates in which it is necessary to show the charge for leave and pension allowances.

3. The footnote to Statement No. II of the forms of forecast of financial prospects, prescribed in Circular No. VI of 1882, should be corrected accordingly.
