Letter from the Master Attendant, dated 12 September 1883 No 8817.

I have the honor to state that instead of the thatched huts now occupied by the light keepers of the Muttum Lighthouse, which have to be constantly renewed, it will be a saving in the long run to have tiled buildings erected and as the store room and Superintendent's cookroom and godown are also in a very bad state, I called on the Superintendent to furnish an estimate for all that is required to be done. He has accordingly submitted the accompanying plan and estimates stating that it is intended to construct these buildings in the same way as some belonging to the London Mission are built, which were erected above sixty
