Military Works.

READ—the following letter from Colonel W. H. G. PALMER, Commanding Eastern District, to the Quartermaster-General, dated Fort St. George, 12th September 1883, No. 263 G. :—

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the skittle alley in the South Barracks, St. Thomas' Mount, is greatly in need of repairs, and that an estimate was drawn up for the cost of thoroughly repairing the same by the Executive Engineer, Chingleput division; but as the estimate comes to so high a figure as Rs. 1,225, and in consequence of the dilapidated state of the building, the Executive Engineer cannot recommend the repair of the building, but suggests its removal.

2. The building appears to be in a dangerous state, and I therefore recommend its being dismantled forthwith, leaving the question of its reconstruction to another time.

3. The Officer Commanding Royal Artillery, Eastern District, has applied for the skittle alley being put in order if possible, and at the same time states that it has not been used for several years.

No. 6561.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded to Government with a request that sanction may be accorded to the building in question being dismantled as recommended by the Officer Commanding Eastern District.

2. The building is included in the triennial return as No. 16.

Fort St. George, 12th October 1883

From

Brigadier General R. C. Stewart, C. B.,

Officer Commanding Eastern District.

To

The Quarter Master General.

At,

Fort Saint George.

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Skittle Alley in the South Barracks, Saint Thomas' Mount is greatly in need of repairs and that an estimate was drawn up for the cost of thoroughly repairing the same by the Executive Engineer, Engineering Division, but as the estimate comes to a high figure as Rupees 1225 and in consequence of the dilapidated state of the building the Executive Engineer cannot recommend the repair of the building but suggests its removal.

The building appears to be in a dangerous
state and I therefore recommend its being dismantled forthwith leaving the question of its reconstruction to another time.

The Officer Commanding Royal Artillery
Eastern District has applied for the Skittle Alley being put in order if possible and at the same time states that it has not been used for several years.
