Transport Regulations - (Passages). Part I.

Families of soldiers to accompany them on embarkation.

388. On the departure from India of a married soldier, either as an invalid for discharge on transfer to the depôt or on the relief of his regiment, his wife and children (including step-children) must accompany him, unless the special sanction of government to a contrary course has been obtained through the Commander-in-chief.

(a) Such sanction will only be accorded in cases where it is clearly shown that the individuals left behind will not require future assistance from the state, either in the form of subsistence allowance or subsequent passage from India, and then only when the application is preferred in sufficient time to admit of a reply being received before the soldier leaves his station for the port of embarkation.

(b) Commanding officers are held responsible that this order is stringently enforced, and general officers will require from the officer commanding each battery, British regiment, and hill depôt in their command, one month prior to the march of the time-expired men and again when the invaliding boards have concluded their proceedings, a certificate to the effect that the wives of men of these classes are present with, or will accompany their husbands home, and that none of their children will be left in this country, either in the care of private individuals, or in the various asylums and schools, the exceptions, if any, being vouched by a copy of the Government sanction.

(c) Officers commanding corps and batteries about to quit India will satisfy themselves that children of their men who may be at any of the public orphanages are withdrawn in sufficient time to admit of their embarkation with their parents, as subsistence allowance will not be continued after departure of the parents from India.

G.O.No. 77 dated 20th. March 1869.

(d) It is to be clearly understood that whenever regiments, batteries, time-expired men, invalids or widows proceed to England, children who may have been placed in the various Lawrence asylums, orphanages, or other charitable institutions of India, are to be withdrawn and will accompany their parents or parent.

G.O.No.255, dated 18th. October 1871

Children who have neither parents nor step-parents will alone be permitted to remain.

(e) A similar certificate is also to be furnished to general officers by officers commanding regiments and batteries under orders to leave India one month before the date appointed for their march.

(f) Officers commanding at the ports of embarkation are requested to report by telegraph to the Adjutant General at Simla, Bombay, and Madras any cases in which it may appear that this order has not been fully carried out amongst the troops arriving for embarkation, the men concerned being detained until a reply is received.

On the departure from India of a married soldier, either as an invalid for discharge on transfer to the depôt or on the relief of his regiment, his wife and children (including step-children) must accompany him, unless the special sanction of government to a contrary course has been obtained through the Commander-in-chief.

(a) Such sanction will only be accorded in cases where it is clearly shown that the individuals left behind will not require future assistance from the state, either in the form of subsistence allowance or subsequent passage from India, and then only when the application is preferred in sufficient time to admit of a reply being received before the soldier leaves his station for the port of embarkation.

(b) Commanding officers are held responsible that this order is stringently enforced, and general officers will require from the officer commanding each battery, British regiment, and hill depôt in their command, one month prior to the march of the time-expired men and again when the invaliding boards have concluded their proceedings, a certificate to the effect that the wives of men of these classes are present with, or will accompany their husbands home, and that none of their children will be left in this country, either in the care of private individuals, or in the various asylums and schools, the exceptions, if any, being vouched by a copy of the Government sanction.

(c) Officers commanding corps and batteries about to quit India will satisfy themselves that children of their men who may be at any of the public orphanages are withdrawn in sufficient time to admit of their embarkation with their parents, as subsistence allowance will not be continued after departure of the parents from India.

G.O.No. 77 dated 20th. March 1869.

(d) It is to be clearly understood that whenever regiments, batteries, time-expired men, invalids or widows proceed to England, children who may have been placed in the various Lawrence asylums, orphanages, or other charitable institutions of India, are to be withdrawn and will accompany their parents or parent.

G.O.No.255, dated 18th. October 1871

Children who have neither parents nor step-parents will alone be permitted to remain.

(e) A similar certificate is also to be furnished to general officers by officers commanding regiments and batteries under orders to leave India one month before the date appointed for their march.

(f) Officers commanding at the ports of embarkation are requested to report by telegraph to the Adjutant General at Simla, Bombay, and Madras any cases in which it may appear that this order has not been fully carried out amongst the troops arriving for embarkation, the men concerned being detained until a reply is received.

India will satisfy themselves that children of their men who may be at any of the public orphanages are withdrawn in sufficient time to admit of their embarkation with their parents, as subsistence allowance will not be continued after departure of the parents from India.

(d) It is to be clearly understood that whenever regiments,

G.O.No.255, dated 18th. October 1871

batteries, time-expired men, invalids or widows proceed to England, children who may have been placed in the various Lawrence asylums, orphanages, or other charitable institutions of India, are to be withdrawn and will accompany their parents or parent.

Children who have neither parents nor step-parents will alone be permitted to remain.

(e) A similar certificate is also to be furnished to general officers by officers commanding regiments and batteries under orders to leave India one month before the date appointed for their march.

(f) Officers commanding at the ports of embarkation are requested to report by telegraph to the Adjutant General at Simla, Bombay, and Madras any cases in which it may appear that this order has not been fully carried out amongst the troops arriving for embarkation, the men concerned being detained until a reply is received.

Families of soldiers to accompany them on embarkation.

388. On the departure from India of a married soldier, either as an invalid for discharge on transfer to the depôt or on the relief of his regiment, his wife and children (including step-children) must accompany him, unless the special sanction of government to a contrary course has been obtained through the Commander-in-chief.

(a) Such sanction will only be accorded in cases where it is clearly shown that the individuals left behind will not require future assistance from the state, either in the form of subsistence allowance or subsequent passage from India, and then only when the application is preferred in sufficient time to admit of a reply being received before the soldier leaves his station for the port of embarkation.

(b) Commanding officers are held responsible that this order is stringently enforced, and general officers will require from the officer commanding each battery, British regiment, and hill depôt in their command, one month prior to the march of the time-expired men and again when the invaliding boards have concluded their proceedings, a certificate to the effect that the wives of men of these classes are present with, or will accompany their husbands home, and that none of their children will be left in this country, either in the care of private individuals, or in the various asylums and schools, the exceptions, if any, being vouched by a copy of the Government sanction.
