ENCLOSURE.

From R. RAGGONATH ROW, Esq., Deputy Collector of Madras, to the Collector of Madras, dated 15th September 1883, No. 760.

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the term of the temporary establishment, consisting of two clerks, at a total monthly cost of 40 rupees, sanctioned by Government in their order, dated 2nd April 1883, No. 1009 W., Public Works, in connection with the acquisition of land for the Madras Harbour Works, expires on the 8th October next, and to request that, from and after the 9th idem, a reduced establishment of a single clerk, on Rs. 20 pay, may be permitted to be retained, with the sanction of Government, for a further period of six months, by which time the acquisition of landed properties and houses for the Harbour Works would come to an end.

2. The whole scheme comprised landed properties to the number 242, in each of which there were several houses and very often in a single piece of land there were as many as 100 to 140 huts and houses belonging to as many individuals.
