READ—the following paper :—

Office Note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated 7th August 1883,
No. 464.

Your Office Note, No. 1684 D., dated 3rd August 1883.

I quite agree as to the propriety of debiting Productive and Protective Works with the actual cost of the tools and plant supplied to them, and there is no reason why the arrangement should not also extend to such works as the Buckingham Canal and other works for which Capital and Revenue Accounts are kept. I do not anticipate any difficulty in carrying out the proposal, if, when sanction is applied for to an estimate for tools and plant, the Fund and Work to be debited be clearly noted.

2. Under the present arrangement of charging $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. plus the cost of special tools and plant, Provincial Funds have profited, in the year 1882-83 just closed, to the extent of Rs. 69,500 besides getting all tools actually free of cost.

Endorsement on the above.

Forwarded to the Joint Secretary to Government, Irrigation Branch.

2. The Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, concurs in the views expressed by the Examiner, Public Works Accounts.

LETTER—from

COLONEL J. O. HASTED, R.E.,

Acting Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Public Works Department, Irrigation Branch,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT (IRRIGATION).

SIR,

With reference to paragraph 5 of your letter, No. 78 A.I., dated 16th June 1883, I am directed to say that the Government of Madras concurs in the opinion expressed by the Government of India that in the case of tools and plant for works classed as Productive and Protective, for which items of special plant have to be supplied, the present percentage allowed for tools and plant should be abolished, and all tools and plant treated as special, and would extend the principle to all works for which Capital and Revenue Accounts are kept.

2. In future accounts, therefore, I am to say that the charges for tools and plant will be dealt with accordingly.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed)

J. O. HASTED, Colonel, R.E.,
Ag. Joint Secy. to Govt., P.W.D.,
