Sir

In reply to para 2 of your letter No 2664 H dated 22nd September 1883, regarding the sub pro tem promotions made in the place of Mr Anthony, I am directed to observe that the total charge on account of these promotions in the Madras Establishment of Accountants is about Rupees 135 per mensem, but as it was clearly understood that no extra charge should be incurred, beyond the travelling expenses, due to the temporary transfer of Mr Anthony, the Examiners of Public Works Accounts Madras should not have made the promotions without the sanction of Government, and they should now be cancelled. The charge on this
